

Rhode Island Athletic Trainers
Association presents
Spring Webinar
Thursday May 23, 2024

Agenda (times EST):

8:45a- 8:55 Attendee Log-in
9:00a- 10:30am "Evaluation and Treatment of Runners"- Dr Brian Hay
10:30a- 10:35 Break
10:40a- 12:40 p"The Collapsed Athlete" - Dr Neha Rauker
12:40p- 12:50- Additional questions/concerns.

Registration

www.riathletictrainers.net

By May 16th:

RIATA Members: $45

Non RIATA Members: $65

After May 16th:

RIATA Members: $50

Non RIATA Members $70

Registration will close 12p May 22, 2024

Learning Objectives

"Evaluation and Treatment of Runners" -Brian Hay Regional Director, Physical Therapist, HighBar

- Implement running analysis video techniques to assist clinical evaluation
- Discuss key movements necessary in ideal running form
- Describe the specific movement needs of a runner

"The collapsed Athlete- Dr Neha Rauker Associate Professor of Emergency Medicine - Mayo Clinic College of Medicine and Science

- Describe your role as the sideline provider in reducing preventable deaths
- Apply maneuvers that will improve outcomes in collapsed athletes
- Develop your algorithm to approach the collapsed athlete

Cancellation policy

Conference registration canceled in writing on or before May 18th may be refundable but subject to a $15 administrative fee. No refunds offered after this date.

Target Audience: Athletic Trainers

There are no sponsors for this event.

This webinar will be recorded and emailed to all registered participants. Registered attendees will have until June 23rd to complete assessment. Certificate will be sent automatically upon completion.

The Rhode Island Athletic Trainers' Association (P#346) is approved by the Board of Certification Inc. to provide continuing education to Certified Athletic Trainers. This program is eligible for a maximum of 3.5 Category A CEU's. ATs should claim only those hours actually spent in the educational program.

