

Webinar: "Hip Problems and the Pediatric Athlete"

May 22, 2024. 12pm EST-1:30pm (EST)

Presenter: Dr Jonathan Schiller, MD

Pediatric Orthopedics, University Orthopedics

Learning Objectives

- Identify common hip conditions in the pediatric athlete
- Discuss and compare existing treatment options for the pediatric hip pathology
- Implement rehabilitation plans for pediatric hip dysfunctions
- State skeletal and muscular anatomy of the hip

Target Audience: Athletic Trainers

Registration

Registration
www.riathletictrainers.net
By May 16th:
RIATA Members: $20
Non RIATA Members: $35
After May 16th:
RIATA Members: $25
Non RIATA Members $40
Registration will close 12p May 21, 2024

This webinar will be recorded and emailed to all registered participants. Registered attendees will have until June 23rd to complete assessment. Certificate will be sent automatically upon completion of assessment

Cancellation policy: Conference registration canceled in writing on or before May 20 may be refundable but subject to a $5 administrative fee. No refunds offered after this date

The Rhode Island Athletic Trainers' Association (P#346) is approved by the Board of Certification Inc. to provide continuing education to Certified Athletic Trainers. This program is eligible for a maximum of 1.5 Category A CEU's. ATs should claim only those hours actually spent in the educational program.

